TRIVIA TUESDAY INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions

- * Trivia Tuesday will be hosted on a video conferencing platform
- * Sportsnet's Hazel Mae and Ben Wagner will be hosting Trivia Tuesday along with some special guests
- * Each question will be communicated via a video conferencing platform
- * As you follow along with the video conferencing platform broadcast, you will be required to submit your answers into a Google Doc, accessible via a link provided to you before the event.
  - There will be four categories with ten questions each.
    - The four categories are:
      - 1970's / 1980's
      - 1990's
      - 2000's
      - 2010's
- * The four categories will each include questions on the Blue Jays, Rogers Centre stadium/events, and popular culture!
- * Each team will be allotted 30 seconds between each question to discuss their response
- * Each correct response will be worth one point
- * Once you submit your answers each round, you will not be able to return and adjust your responses

Team Element

- * You are permitted a maximum of five (5) people per team
  - Teams consisting of only one individual are permitted
- * Team captains are responsible for organizing their own form of communication; i.e. group chat, group video call etc. so that you can communicate with your teammates throughout the broadcast. Only the team captain will have access to the Trivia Tuesday broadcast, we highly encourage your team communication includes screen sharing from your team captain, if possible.
- * Your team captain is responsible for submitting your team answers via the Google Doc
  - Only the team captain is permitted to submit responses (one submission per team permitted)
  - The team captain will be prompted to submit their team name on the first page of their Trivia response Google Doc
- * There will be a "Top 5 Leaderboard" displayed on the broadcast throughout Trivia Tuesday and will be updated accordingly after each round

Additional Instructions

- * Spelling counts
  - For the written response questions, please ensure that first and last names are spelled correctly, with correct punctuation (upper and lower case) otherwise the response will be marked as incorrect
- * Once the host has indicated that all responses must be submitted after each round, you must submit your answers otherwise you risk your responses not being tabulated in time
