HOW TO PLAY DOMINOS

Number of Players: 2-4

Types of Dominoes Used: Double 6

Type of Game: Scoring Game

An educational and easy to learn game for children and adults. The game of dominoes is a traditional leisure activity with slightly different rules for many countries but most known for the Mexican dominoes game style.

Players: Two to four people may play the game of Dominoes. If four people are playing the game, it may be played as a team game with the two players sitting opposite one another as teammates.

Shuffling: To begin the game the dominoes place all pieces face down and shuffle. Players will draw one domino each and the player drawing the highest double or if a non-double, the highest domino will play first. Re-shuffle the dominoes and begin drawing the first hand.

Drawing Hands: Each player will draw seven dominoes for their first hand. The remaining dominoes, if any, are left face down on the table to be drawn later if a player is unable to play from their hand.

Game Begins: The player who drew the highest double or the highest domino plays first by playing any domino they wish from their hand.

Game Objective: Players score points by laying the dominoes end to end (the touching ends must match: i.e., one's touch one's, two's touch two's, etc.). If the dots on the touching ends total any multiple of 5, the player is given that number of points.

All sides of the first domino with double numbers may allow dominoes to be placed on either side. All other doubles are to be played at the right angles of the line and the total points on both ends are counted.

Dominoing occurs when one player finishes the game by playing all of their dominoes. The sum of the spots by opposing players is computed and added to the player's score (rounded to the nearest five). If the game is played with partners, the spots of the partner who "Dominoed" are not counted.

Blocking the Game: If during the game it is impossible for any of the players to play, the game is "Blocked". The player (or partners) who have the least spots in their own (or their combined) hand(s) scores the total of the spots in the opponents' hands (rounded to the nearest five).

The score of 250 points is usually considered a game. The first person (or partners) to score this amount wins the game.

Playing Again:

Shuffle and begin a new game. The player who won plays first.

Game Vocabulary

- Blocking When the game of Dominoes is no longer able to be played by either player(s)
- Dominoing Occurs when one player finishes the game by playing all their dominoes
- Double The two sides of a domino with equal or different numbers
- Shuffle To move or rearrange game pieces into a random order
- Spots When dominoes are placed on a table or board

These are general rules for the game of Dominoes and know they differ from place to place. We want to hear how you play at your home. Tag @LosBravos on Facebook and Twitter for a chance of reply on our channel.
