

DODGER BASEBALL POETRY

Haikus are poems that follow a 5-7-5 pattern, meaning the first line has 5 syllables, the second line has 7 syllables, and the last line has 5 syllables. Check out the examples below, then try writing your own!

*Hear those famous words
It's Time for Dodger Baseball
The game is starting*

*Congratulations
National League MVP
Cody Bellinger*

Many poems follow an A-B-A-B rhyme pattern. This means that the first line rhymes with the third line and the second line rhymes with the fourth line. Read the example, and then write your own.

*The pitcher throws the ball
You hear the crack of the bat
The ball goes over the wall
A fan catches it in his hat*
