SEASON TICKET MEMBER HEROES OF THE WEEK ◀

- ▶ Each week we’ll highlight a Giants season ticket member or members who are stepping up during this tremendous time of need. This week we salute the work of Chris Denevi and Leann Hargis
- ▶ When the shelter-in-place came out Chris and Leann were in Scottsdale for the Giants Spring Training and decided they needed to find a way to help get through this pandemic.
- ▶ As a retired RN who had worked through the AIDS crisis and in the NICU with high-risk newborns, Chris understood the need for Medical and frontline personnel to properly protect themselves to keep from getting and spreading the virus. In listening to what nurses were saying it became clear that face shields were needed, but in short supply.
- ▶ Leann is an entrepreneur that had been looking at 3D Printers for prototypes and decided to call MakerGear in Ohio and had a 3D printer within three days. Leann then joined others in an active 3D community and began printing the parts for face shields that were difficult to get for medical and frontline workers.
- ▶ The face shields are printed from a plastic biodegradable filament and take about three hours each to print. A laser-cut clear shield is then attached to the printed headband and a protective printed chin guard is added along with an elastic band to secure the face shield. A face shield provides protection from coughing or droplets when a frontline worker has to be close to another person.

- ▶ To date they have sent out over 100 face shields to requesting hospitals and continue to make more for frontline workers. All of their face shields are printed in black and orange, it’s a winning combination!

COACH SPEAK: ANTOAN RICHARDSON ◀

Each week we’ll get to know the new Giants coaches with a few fun questions in this space. This week it’s 1st base coach Antoan Richardson.

You have a perfect 1.000 career batting average vs. Clayton Kershaw. He isn’t that tough to hit is he, LOL? In all seriousness, how did it feel to get your first career hit off Kershaw?

AR: LOL. He is one of the best, if not the best in the past decade. I just found the biggest bat and hoped for the best. In the moment, I was just finding a way to get on and help the team.

You also went 2-for-3 off Kevin Gausman in your career. Did you ever give him a hard time about it in camp this year?

AR: Until reading this question I had no idea what I did off of him in my career. What we did talk about, was how he picked me off of first in Camden Yards.

How loud was the crowd when you scored the game-winning run off Jeter's walk-off single in his final game at Yankee Stadium? How did you feel after the umpire signaled safe and you knew you'd scored the run?

AR: It might have been the loudest thing that I have ever experienced. When I knew I was safe, I felt relieved. I knew I had an opportunity to leave that stadium without wearing a disguise.

What is your favorite home-cooked meal?

AR: Chicken Souse. It is a Bahamian dish and the best way to describe it is chicken soup.

MLB THE SHOW PLAYERS LEAGUE | HUNTER PENCE ◀

- ▶ Giants OF Hunter Pence is serving as the Giants representative in the 30-player eSports league MLB The Show Players League.
- ▶ The 30-player league includes 11 former All-Stars, five World Series Champions and eight players age 25 or younger. Pence is 10-16 and has games today vs. Ryne Stanek (Miami) and Luke Jackson (Atlanta).
- ▶ Following this regular season, the top eight teams will advance to the Postseason, which will largely mirror the MLB Postseason format and culminate in a World Series.

Fans can watch streams of games on a variety of digital platforms, including Twitch and YouTube. Follow @hunterpence, @MLB, @MLB_PLAYERS, @MLBTheShow and the players' Twitter accounts for times and stream information.

KAPLER'S KITCHEN ◀

Each week, Manager Gabe Kapler will give us some of his favorite food spots from around the US, in no particular order.

Starlite BBQ and Whiskey Bar has a diverse BBQ inspired menu. All of their meats are smoked in house (their sauces are made in house too).

I'm way in on their beef ribs and their brisket, both which don't need sauce. To accompany the ribs/brisket, SBBQ has a world class whiskey selection.

I spent many spring training nights at the edge of the bar, iPad in one hand, bones in the other.

GIANTS PLAYER SPOTLIGHT | ALEX DICKERSON ◀

- ▶ Raised in Poway, CA near San Diego.
- ▶ Father, Ross, flew F-14 Tomcats from aircraft carriers all over the world and was a graduate of TOP-GUN, the Naval Weapons Fighter School. He made seven deployments generally lasting eight months at a time and returned to the States permanently in 1999, when Alex was nine. He retired in 2002 at the rank of Commander. In 1993 he had the experience of ejecting from one of the fighter jets when an engine caught fire over the Miramar Naval base in San Diego. His final operational deployment was as an air operations officer on the USS Kitty Hawk in Yokosuka, Japan.
- ▶ Also a Navy man, Alex's grandfather, Howard Dickerson, was a reconnaissance pilot in the Battle of Midway and in the Solomon Islands campaign in World War II.
- ▶ Dickerson started limping one day while playing football as a sophomore at Poway High School. For six months it was diagnosed as a knee injury, but a physical therapist later discovered that it was actually his back that caused the knee pain. Doctors said he couldn't play sports, the risk was too great in someone so young.

- ▶ Dickerson was at a baseball banquet with former Major Leaguer Tom Brunansky and Bruce Bochy. Brunansky introduced Bochy to Alex's dad, Ross, and told Bochy about Dickerson's back issue. Bochy connected him to the Padres' doctor, who also said he didn't think Dickerson could play but referred him to a doctor specialized in microsurgery. The surgery worked and Dickerson went back to playing baseball for his junior and senior years.
- ▶ Attended Poway High School in the San Diego area and was two years behind Bochy's son, Brett (who appeared in seven games with the Giants from 2014-2015).
- ▶ In 37 games as a senior, he hit .455 with 44 RBI. Nearly half his 55 hits went for extra bases, including eight home runs.
- ▶ Deron Johnson, his high school hitting coach, tells about Dickerson getting spiked in the arm playing first base in the first game of a big doubleheader against the crosstown rivals. It was an ugly, bleeding gash, and three coaches and the trainer were ready to take him to the ER. His military dad takes a look and says, "He'll be fine. Tape him up. We'll take him after." Dickerson got three hits and played both ends of the doubleheader. "He always gave you everything he had," Johnson says.

FAMILY INFORMATION

- Father, Ross, was a career Naval Flight Officer who retired in 2002 when Alex was 12.
- Mother, Carol, is a registered dietician and worked at several hospitals before giving up that career to raise her children
- Has one sister, Kelsie, who graduated from UC Berkeley. She walked on to the Cal soccer team and played for three years. She was the Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.
- Kelsie is now an assistant scientist for a pharmaceutical company in Southern California.

- ▶ Ross and Alex's mother, Carol, couldn't watch or listen to any of his college and professional games until they were over. "I've had enough stress in my life," Ross says. They turn off their cell phones, too, to avoid texts. When the game's over, they look at the box score, see how he did then they can watch the game with no anxiety.
- ▶ They attended every game during high school and are good to watch his games from the ballpark itself.
