If you have ten seats, you may renew ten and add two incremental strips. To purchase incremental strips, your postseason invoice must be paid in full.

You have the ability to choose your add-on strip location through your My Rangers Ticket account. Beginning at 10:00 AM the morning after paying your postseason invoice in full, you will have a “Postseason Strip Add-On Opportunity” located in the “Offers” portion of your My Rangers Ticket account. The “Click Here To See Your Offers” button can be found in the upper right corner of the My Rangers Tickets home screen. As a note, if you pay your invoice in full on a Friday, you will receive access to purchase your incremental strips the following Monday morning at 10:00 AM.

Full-season ticket holders will have a week-long priority window to choose add-on strip locations prior to 20 game plans having access to select their seats. Your last day to purchase your additional postseason strips is Wednesday, September 13th.

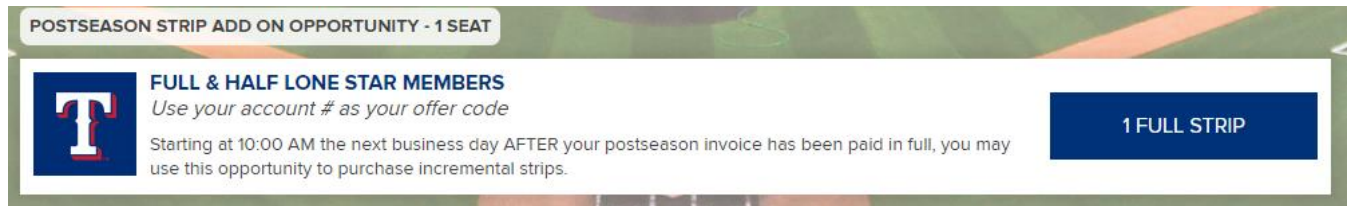

* The Texas Rangers reserve the right to move the location of any add-on strip based on MLB requirements.
