“Traditionally, summer reading programs are designed to encourage elementary school-aged children to keep reading during summer vacation,” notes the Collaborative Summer Library Program (CSLP). Public libraries are the perfect place for children of all ages to access free educational and enrichment activities and programs.

Throughout the summer of 2023, many libraries across the country will celebrate summer reading through the theme “All Together Now.” This theme, focused on kindness, friendship and unity, was chosen by library professionals to help inspire readers of all ages.

The Tampa Bay Rays, Suncoast Credit Union and the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education program are excited to celebrate this theme in the 16th annual Read Your Way to the Ballpark summer reading program.

The crack of the bat, the smell of hot dogs and pretzels and the sound of children reading mark the beginning of summer reading season!

Summer is here, and it is time to sit down with a good book, magazine or newspaper and enjoy watching our Tampa Bay Rays in action. Once again, the Rays, Tampa Bay-area libraries, Suncoast Credit Union and the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education program have teamed up to create a lineup of free summer reading fun to encourage and reward students for reading.

Everyone’s commitment to education in our community makes this an exciting matchup, especially with this year’s special theme: All Together Now. By reading books, graphic novels and newspaper articles this summer, all students in grades pre-kindergarten through 12 in Charlotte, Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk and Sarasota counties can participate.

On the pages of this publication, you can get some great book suggestions to exercise your imagination throughout summer vacation.

Visit your local library or raysbaseball.com/reading for your game card. Once you read for 24 hours, you will receive a two-ticket voucher to an upcoming Rays home game.

Journal your way through summer

Keeping a reading journal is a great way to keep track of what you have read and learn more about yourself. While you are reading books and newspaper articles this summer, write down questions, thoughts and opinions about what you have read. Through your reading, you can explore new concepts and ideas. While you are keeping your journal, read the Tampa Bay Times at least twice a week, along with your books. You can read news, sports, comic strips or even advertisements. What are your thoughts about the things you read in the newspaper? To begin your journal, write about something that you have read in the Times that directly affects your life. Share some of your journal entries and thoughts with your peers and family. Submit a book or newspaper article review to ordernie@tampabay.com.
Once upon a time, there were two fearless mascots living at Tropicana Field. By day, they led typical lives, yet as soon as batting practice began, they changed into their super identities. These two super mascots were Raymond and DJ Kitty!

These two super mascots love meeting new people and saving the world the world from dangerous wild pitches, evil flying bats and dreaded hot dog shortages. After making Tropicana Field a better place, they spend their downtime in their underground dugout relaxing and, of course, reading.

Did you know?
As part of the season-long celebration of their 25th anniversary, the Rays are launching a team Hall of Fame, with an inaugural class of three men who played big roles in their early years: Don Zimmer, former senior advisor; Wade Boggs, Hall of Fame third baseman and Carl Crawford, four-time All-Star left fielder.

It was 25 years ago when Rays scouts, on a fishing trip in the Gulf of Mexico, spotted a strange-looking animal. The creature, drawn to the boat by the smell of hot dogs and mustard, climbed aboard and entertained the scouts with his silly antics.

The scouts named him “Raymond,” and the rest is history. Raymond accepted the invitation to become the fun-loving fuzzball mascot for the Tampa Bay Rays.

Although Raymond’s animal-like appearance causes confusion among fans of all ages, scientists discovered that Raymond is actually a previously undiscovered species of dog known as “Canus Manta Whatthefluffalus” or a Seadog.

Seadogs have all the traits of normal dogs. They enjoy going for walks, playing with kids and fetching foul balls. Unlike other dogs, they are five to six feet tall, walk upright, are blue in color and chase catfish. While other dogs live on land, Seadogs usually live in or around the water. Seadogs are well known for their fun-loving nature, passion for baseball and general good looks.

Raymond loves baseball and reading. His other hobbies include belly dancing, hugging, eating hot dogs, doing flips, playing full-contact shuffleboard and extreme chess and meeting kids. Some of Raymond’s favorite books are Clifford the Big Red Dog series by Norman Bridwell, Hank the Cowdog series by John R. Erickson, Dog Man series by Dav Pilkey and Two Hot Dogs With Everything by Paul Haven.

It was the year 2010, in a city known as St. Petersburg, where a kitten was found in the back of Tropicana Field near the dumpsters. This was not your average cat. At 6 feet tall and 200 pounds, this was the hippest cat in all the land.

The scouts at Tropicana Field discovered that this cat had a secret talent: the ability to throw down the hottest scratches in all of Major League Baseball. Dubbed DJ Kitty, this fine feline became the Designated Disc Jockey (DDJ) for the Tampa Bay Rays.

DJ Kitty is the coolest disc jockey on the planet. He plays the hits while watching the hits. Some of DJ Kitty’s favorite songs are “Pump Up the Jam” by Technotronic, “Jump Around” by House of Pain, “Do It Again” by the Chemical Brothers, “Voodoo People” by the Prodigy and “Jump” by the Movement.

But when he is relaxing in the dugout, DJ Kitty’s No. 1 song is “Year of the Cat” by Al Stewart. His favorite thing to do while listening to his favorite music is read!

DJ Kitty’s favorite books are the Cat in the Hat books by Dr. Seuss, The Cricket in Times Square by George Selden, Hip Cat by Jonathan London and Bad Kitty: Kitten Trouble by Nick Bruel.

From the depths of the Gulf of Mexico ...

... to the streets of St. Petersburg

Raymond and DJ Kitty love to read and to sing. Did you know songs and poems have rhyming words in them? According to Vocabulary.com, “A rhyme is when the ending sounds of two words sound alike.” Examples would be cat and hat, mouse and house, bat and rat. Look through the pages of the Tampa Bay Times to find as many rhyming words as you can. Don’t forget to check the comic pages and advertisements. Cut out the rhyming words you find and paste them on a piece of paper. Create a poem or short story with the words. Share your creation with your family and friends.
Bad Kitty: Kitten Trouble
by Nick Bruel

There’s terrible news in the neighborhood next to Kitty’s! A conflict there is growing worse and worse. It started as an argument and has now turned into a full-fledged fight. Worst of all: The cat shelter has been destroyed. Kitty’s family decides it’s time to do something to help. They have an idea to foster as many displaced kittens as possible. Kitty won’t mind, right? Well . . . not exactly. Kitty does seem to mind. She minds a lot.

Reading fun

Reading books and exploring fairy tales, fantasy and mythology can be a lot of fun. Did you know that Rays mascot DJ Kitty loves reading books, especially fairy tales? He loves exploring fantasy worlds and going where no cat has gone before. DJ Kitty also likes reading about people in the community and imagining those people in different settings.

Choose a mythological animal – it can be one you have heard of or a completely new one – and imagine that animal in your own community. Find an article in the Tampa Bay Times and put your character into the situation described in the article. Write a brief paragraph about what the creature does in the situation presented in the article. Illustrate your story and share it with your classmates and family. You also can share the paragraph and artwork with the Reading with the Rays program coordinators and earn a special Rays prize. You can email your story to ordernie@tampabay.com.

Although MLB didn’t come to Tampa Bay in the form of their own team for a while, more Major League Spring Training games have been played in St. Petersburg than in any other city. The first was in 1913, when the Chicago Cubs moved their Spring Training from New Orleans to Tampa.

Understanding stories

The best way to understand the facts in a story is to identify the who, what, where, when, why and how elements of the story. Read one of the stories or a comic strip in the Tampa Bay Times. Break down the meaning of the story by noting the facts of who the story is about, what happened in the story and how, where does the story take place, when does the story take place, and why did it happen.

The Newspaper in Education (NIE) program is a cooperative effort between schools and the Times Publishing Co. to promote the use of newspapers in print and electronic form as educational resources. Our educational resources fall into the category of informational text.

Since the mid-1970s, NIE has provided schools with class sets of the Times, plus our award-winning original curriculum, at no cost to teachers or schools.

With ever-shrinking school budgets, the newspaper has become an invaluable tool to teachers. The Times and our NIE curriculum are rich educational resources, offering teachers an up-to-the-minute, living text and source for countless projects in virtually every content area.

NIE serves teachers in private, public, alternative and home schools. Email ordernie@tampabay.com to become an NIE teacher.

For information about how you can donate to NIE, call 727-893-8138 or visit tampabay.com/nie. Keep in the know about the Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education program by following us on Twitter: twitter.com/TBTimesNIE and liking us on Facebook: facebook.com/TBTNIE.

Don’t forget, you and your children can keep up with the Rays games and chart your favorite players’ statistics by reading the Tampa Bay Times every day. Reading the Times digital edition is a great way to get students reading every day and engaged in their communities.

Check out the Times NIE website at tampabay.com/nie/raysreading.
