The Colorado Rockies recorded their most runs in a shutout victory in franchise history (previous: 13, Sept. 16, 2007 vs. Florida) ... it was their third shutout of the season in which they scored 10 or more runs, the most such victories in a single season in franchise history, and the most for any National League team since Cincinnati recorded five such shutouts in 2013 ... it was their sixth shutout of the season at Coors Field, tied for the most home shutouts in franchise history (2006) ... the 16-run margin of victory was the largest since they won 19-3, Sept. 25, 2011 at Houston ... won their seventh straight game against the Padres, the longest winning streak against San Diego in franchise history ... won their 82nd game of the season, clinching the eighth season in which they will finish with a record greater than .500.

Tyler Anderson pitched six shutout innings, allowing two hits with two walks and three strikeouts ... it was his fourth quality start of the season ... since coming off of the 60-day disabled list Sept. 10, has combined for 10.0 scoreless innings, three hits, two walks and seven strikeouts over his two appearances.

Nolan Arenado recorded his 125th RBI of the season, his third consecutive season of 125 or more RBI ... he is the first player in Rockies history to have three consecutive seasons of 125 or more RBI, and the first third baseman in Major League history to accomplish the feat.

Charlie Blackmon recorded his 89th RBI of the season from the leadoff spot with a double in the fifth inning (90th RBI in total) to set a new National League single-season record for RBI as a leadoff hitter (previous: Craig Biggio, 88 in 1998) ... the double, his 81st extra-base hit of the season, set a new NL single-season extra-base hits record for a leadoff hitter (previous: Jimmy Rollins, 80 in 2007) ... added a home run in the sixth inning for his 82nd extra-base hit, fourth-most by a leadoff hitter in MLB history, the most since Grady Sizemore set the MLB record with 92 in 2006.

Carlos González recorded a season-high tying three hits (fifth time, last: Sept. 7 at Los Angeles-NL) ... hit his 13th home run of the season in the fifth inning, his third home run in his last five games and his fifth within his last nine.

Pat Valaika recorded his first career pinch-hit grand slam in the seventh inning, his fourth pinch-hit home run of the season ... it was the 11th pinch-hit grand slam in Rockies history (last: Ryan Raburn, July 15, 2016 at Atlanta) ... his 15 pinch-hit RBI on the season are tied for the most pinch-hit RBI by a rookie since 1958, the first season with official rookie rules (Greg Walker, Chicago-AL, 1983).
