On June 24th, 1968, Detroit Tiger’s right fielder Jim Northrup became the 6th American League player to hit two grand slams in one game. He hit one in the 5th inning off Cleveland Indian’s pitcher Eddie Fisher and in the 6th off Billy Rohr, as the Tigers destroyed Cleveland, 14 – 3.