A future Hall of Famer and one of Detroit Tigers’ all-time greats, Miguel Cabrera, is approaching a lot of major career milestones this year. Here’s an up-to-date list on how close he is to reaching them as of 7/2/2021:

Career Milestones Already Achieved this Year:

- 5,000 Total Bases: Cabrera reached the 5,000 mark in June of 2021 and is currently at 5,006 total bases touched. This ranks 22nd all-time in the MLB and 7th for the Tigers.
- 2,500 Games Played: Cabrera reached the 2,500 mark in June of 2021 and is currently at 2,513 games played. This ranks 57th all-time in the MLB.
- 400 Doubles (As a Tiger only): Cabrera currently has 403 doubles in a Tiger’s uniform which ranks him 8th on the Tigers all time list.

Career Milestones Expected to Achieve this Year:

- 500 Home Runs: Cabrera currently sits at 494 home runs which is ranked 28th on the all-time list.
- 3,000 Hits: Cabrera currently sits at 2,910 hits which is ranked 41st on the all-time list.
- 1,100 Extra-Base Hits: Cabrera currently has 1,095 extra base hits which ranks 22nd in the MLB all-time.