On July 27th, 1900, Kid Lowe, the 3rd baseman for the Detroit Stars, was born. The Detroit Stars was Detroit’s Negro Leagues team from 1919–1931. The Stars re-appeared in the National Negro Leagues (NNL) 1933 and 1937 as teams attempted to re-brand. Lowe was the starting 3rd baseman in 1924 and played on the Indianapolis ABC’s, the Negro Leagues team that re-branded to become the Detroit Stars, in 1933.
