DID YOU KNOW?

Tigers live far apart from each other. A tiger knows if it is in another tiger's territory based on the trees around him. Each tiger marks the trees in its area with special scratches.

OPENING DAY FUN FACTS

- The first opening day for the Tigers was on April 25, 1901 when the newly formed Detroit Tigers played at Bennett Park against the Milwaukee Brewers.
- Al Kaline has played in the most opening days of any other Tiger – starting in 20 consecutive opening days from 1954 to 1973 with his lone center field start in 1960.
- In 2019, the Tigers faced the Kansas City Royals in their Home Opener and won 5-4.
- The Tigers won 9 straight Opening Day games from 2009-2017.
