DID YOU KNOW?

TIGERS STATUES

Have you ever seen the statues out by the outfield? Who are they? Well, the six statues that you see in the outfield at Comerica Park honor Detroit Tigers players who have had their numbers retired. These players include Al Kaline, Hal Newhouser, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton and Ty Cobb. Underneath the statues, you will also see the numbers that each gentleman wore when playing, and no, the number for Cobb did not fall off! Cobb played in the Major Leagues before players were assigned individual numbers on their jerseys. Alan Trammell and Jack Morris were the last two to add their numbers to the wall, and the Tigers plan on adding Lou Whitaker as well.

WHITE TIGERS

Have you heard of white tigers? Well, they’re very rare and they have a gene in their bodies that are only found in 1 of every 10,000 tigers. It would be great to see one of these in the wild - such a rare find!
